

YOU THINK

by Jeremy Hill

Say I'm crazy
I'm telling you to run away

You say I'm lazy
To lay around all day

Some body hear me
I'm starting to drift away

It sure seems tempting
To turn and run away

I'm wasting my time
Losing my mind

Don't worry I'm okay
I'm on the outside looking in – in - in
I'm on the outside looking in – in - in

Say I'm sorry
For everything I've ever said to - you
I've said please forgive me
For everything I'll ever do, or I've done to you

I'm wasting my time
Or losing what's my mine
Don't worry I'm okay -

I'm on the outside looking in - in
I'm on the outside looking in – in – in

I'm telling you it's useless
Being yourself today
It sure seems hopeless
To think we'll ever be free - ee

I'm wasting my time
Losing my mind

Don't worry I'm okay
I'm on the outside looking in - in
I'm on the outside looking in – in – in

I'm on the outside looking in – in –in
